GRAND HÔTEL DU PALAIS ROYAL

PARIS, FRANCE

Chic and charismatic: fall for this garden-side retreat in Paris, the 'city of love'

With the Royal Garden inner courtyard one side and the Louvre the other, Grand Hôtel du Palais Royal has one of the most prestigious addresses in Paris. Enter through the majestic façade and you'll be in a sophisticated haven infused with designer style. The rooms are refined, the restaurant exquisite and the service polished – enough to make hearts flutter.

Throughout, look out for the vivid green accents that bring a sense of the nearby royal gardens indoors. Le Lulli – the hotel's fine dining restaurant – has been created to feel like a winter garden. While the bar, with its marble counter and toile de jouy fabrics, looks like a work of art. After dessert, pull up a sleek stool and watch the mixologist create cocktails. Or choose from one of the 30 champagnes in the hotel's collection.

The hotel's expertly trained Clefs d'Or concierge is your passport to the city's hotspots. You could take in world-famous art at the Louvre, just a hop, skip and a jump from the front door. Or follow a morning in Jardin du Palais Royal with a stroll around Tuileries Gardens. You'll be right next to the Seine, if a boat trip appeals. Not to mention La Comédie-Française for a spot of theatre. Before a night out in Paris, make a beeline for the Grand Hôtel du Palais Royal spa. The therapists will guide you through a menu of facials, massages and beauty treatments.

HÔTEL DU PETIT MOULIN

PARIS, FRANCE

Glamour and theatricality in the fashionable Parisian district of Le Marais

Set in a 17th century building, originally home to Paris' first bakery, Hotel du Petit Moulin is a truly unique residence with flamboyant interiors designed by Christian Lacroix. Reflecting the history, art and culture of this area of Paris, the decoration is both lavish and evocative and the 1900 shop frontage is now listed as part of French heritage by Historic Monuments.

This quirky hotel has 17 rooms and suites with an unequalled ambience, the atmosphere here changes from room to room which is very much its charm. From brightly coloured 60's furniture in the bar and plush textiles, leather sofas and highly decorative walls in the lounge to green corridors with polka-dot carpeting that lead to Baroque, Rococo and Couture designed rooms, it is a fascinating journey through the artistic expertise of Christian Lacroix.

The hotel is within walking distance of the Picasso Museum, the Place des Vosges, the Opera Bastille and the Carnavalet Museum. Further south, towards the Seine, visit Victor Hugo's house before wandering through Village Saint Paul to discover a wealth of antiques. Return to the hotel for an evening apéritif before dining in one of many good restaurants nearby. Enjoy complimentary access to the Spa de la Reine by Carita, which has two treatment booths, a gym and Jacuzzi as well as a steam bath at sister hotel, Pavillon de la Reine, close by on the Place des Vosges.

HÔTEL LE BELLECHASSE SAINT-GERMAIN

PARIS, FRANCE

An haute couture gem just steps from the Musée d'Orsay

Designed by couturier, Christian Lacroix and inspired by the 19th century artistic and cultural influences of Paris' left bank, Hôtel Le Bellechasse Saint-Germain is a chic, yet flamboyantly decorated, hideaway in a narrow side street in St Germain.

The hotel rooms are full of character and colour and are based on seven design themes that reflect the local area, including Saint-Germain, Tuileries, Quai d'Orsay and Jeu de Paume. Expect bizarre subjects and figures that reflect both bohemia and neo-classicism such as bizarre 19th century gentlemen with butterfly wings, giant playing cards as well as Italian-style and astrological frescoes.

Wander the narrow streets surrounding Hôtel Le Bellechasse Saint-Germain and discover the myriad of art galleries, antique shops, bistros and restaurants. The Eiffel tower is just a 15-minute walk away as is the Louvre Gallery and the Tuileries Gardens.
