Opening in spring 2013, The Grand Hôtel du Palais Royal is where travelers experience luxurious comfort, unsurpassed service, and bespoke beauty. After a two-year renovation, this unique landmark combines historic elegance with ultra-modern comforts. Its landmark façade evokes a sense of majestic history, and its contemporary interior reflects the designs of the award-winning architect Pierre-Yves Rochon.

LOCATION:

Centrally located with immediate access to the Louvre Museum, facing the Palais Royal, and within minutes from famous boutique shopping on Saint-Honoré and Rivoli streets. Close to taxi and metro stations. Charles de Gaulle Int'l Airport: 15 mi/24 km, 30 minutes.

FACILITIES/SERVICES:

68 guestrooms, including 11 suites. Full American buffet breakfast, lounge bar, Les Clefs d'Or concierge, Carita Spa, and fitness center with gym and steam room.

DINING:

The fine dining restaurant features cuisine prepared using high-quality, regional ingredients. The lounge bar is ideal for light snacks and scrumptious delights prepared by the pastry chef. In the evening, the bartender serves creative cocktails.
